North Dallas Artist Studio Tour on April 23 – 24, 10AM-5PM Free, self-guided tour of 19 artist studios

Twenty-four local artists will open their studios to the public on April 23-24, 2022, for the 17th annual North Dallas Artist Studio Tour. This free, self-guided tour will be held from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day on Saturday, April 25 and Sunday, April 26, featuring artists working in glass, oils, watercolors, ceramics, jewelry, photography, fabrics, and more.

Visit working studios and see art in all of stages of creation. Talk to artists about ideas, processes, materials; find out how they got started, what inspires them, and how their art is evolving. Get inspired to begin creating art yourself!

Watch Artists As They Create

Watch artists Liz Wiley and Chris Box as they work on large scale paintings, or jewelers Charlotte Edwards and Martha Vaughan as they create silver jewelry using a new method of working with silver. At photographer Sheila Cunningham's studio, learn how she uses both traditional and digital photography tools to create reflections on contemporary issues. Every artist will be showing or discussing how they create their art.

This popular local art event is now celebrating its 17th anniversary, growing each year as visitors enjoy the opportunity to experience art being created by local accomplished artists before it goes to galleries or shows.

Where to Find Tour Artists

The tour features artists working in north Dallas - between Lovers Lane and LBJ Freeway, and from Denton Drive to Central Expressway. Visit www.NorthDallasArt.com to download a map of all studios; printed maps are also available at each artist's studio.
