April 25-26, 2026 | 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. | Free Admission

DALLAS, TX – The 21th annual North Dallas Artist Studio Tour invites the public to explore 20 working studios featuring 25 local artists on April 25-26, 2026. This free, self-guided tour runs from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on both Saturday and Sunday, offering a behind-the-scenes look at artists working in glass, oil, watercolor, ceramics, jewelry, photography, textiles, wood, and more.

Celebrating 21 Years of Art in North Dallas
Now in its 21th year, this beloved local event continues to grow, drawing art lovers from across the region who enjoy discovering and supporting talented local artists.

Experience Art in the Making
Visitors will have the unique opportunity to step inside working studios, observe artists at every stage of the creative process, and engage in conversation about their ideas, techniques, and inspirations. From concept to completion, see firsthand how art evolves before it reaches galleries and exhibitions.

A Diverse Group of Artists and Mediums
Every artist will showcase or discuss their creative process. A few highlights include:

- Nathan Jones, a world renowned master artist is recognized for his unique style of Painting with A Pencil which conveys deep emotional realism in his work.
- Gary Eisenstat, a former trial lawyer who now creates intricate glass art.
- Jan Dreskin-Haig, an artist working in ceramics, painting, photography, and printmaking, inspired by nature.
- Lori Cusick, an award winning oil painter specializing in plein air landscapes and pet portraits.
- Brenda Anderson, who's stoneware vessels are both wheel thrown and hand built then fired in oxidation or Raku.

Where to Find Tour Artists
The tour features studios located throughout North Dallas, spanning NW Highway to LBJ Freeway and Webb Chapel to Central Expressway. Visit www.NorthDallasArt.com to download a tour map. Printed maps will also be available at each participating studio.
